by Score of 4 to 3.

SANDHERR IS THE STAR field to right. The visitors annexed the fourth in the seventh on Schaffy's double, a sacrifice and an infield out.

The Champs also took their last one in the seventh, Kiefel hitting safely, taking second on Mult's sacrifice bunt and scoring on Lipe's drive into left field.

With Famous Oil-Soaked Willow,

The teams will play again this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Walker and Powers probably will pitch for the Colts.

Virginia put up a very ragged fielding game to-day and barely won from Amberst. Score 5 to 4.

McClure, Amherst's star twirler, was touched up for an even dozen hits.
The Southerners took a liking to his curves at the very outset, seven hits in the first three innings netting five runs, which proved enough to win. Honaker opened up with a clean single to left, went around to third on Henry's bad throw to second and counted on Captain Hoff's drive to left. In the second inning, Fltchett dropped a single in right and scored on Cabaniss's runs, which proved enough to win.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Complications entered to-day into the case of Jack Johnson, the world's negro champion heavyweight pusilist, who appeared in court to answer a charge of long standing against him by Almee Douglass, a colored girl, Before Johnson's appearance Joseph Netherlan, a negro, was arrested, charged with attempting to bribe Almee Douglas to stay away from court. Johnson was convicted on the charge preferred by Almee Douglas and a fine of $200 was imposed.

Johnson promptly paid the fine, Netherlan was arraigned later. He declared he made no offer to Almee Douglas, and that he never had $50 in his life. He was held in $1,000 ball.
